

July 29 12:30 - 4:30 pm

SESSION 3: Improving Outcomes

12:30 – 12:45 pm Training Overview: Program leaders will discuss the goals and format of the day's programming, drawing upon the Arlington DCJS mission statement, shared values and goals work of the earlier small groups as well as the training thus far.

12:45 – 1:30 pm Small Group Discussion: Using a case hypothetical, these single stakeholder small groups will identify areas where PWD can be impacted by the criminal legal process.

- Key interaction points to be discussed include:
 - Calls for assistance.
 - Police interactions
 - Interviews and interrogations
 - Invoking and waiving rights
 - Interactions with lawyers
 - Courtroom proceedings
 - Detention facilities
 - Pretrial and probation obligations

1:30 – 1:45 pm Break

1:45 – 2:30 pm The application of supported decision making in the criminal legal process (Jon Martinis)

2:30 – 2:45 pm Break

2:45 – 3:15 pm Application of Advanced Directives in criminal legal process (for defendants, witnesses and victims) (Laurie Hallmark)

3:15 – 4:00 pm Small Group Discussion: These cross-stakeholder small groups will examine ways in which the legal system can improve its accessibility for persons with disabilities, build collaborations, and connect with communities.

4:00 – 4:30pm Small Group Report Out and Next Steps: This will focus on putting specific actions behind the values we've explored and the aspirations we've stated to address the problems we've identified. SMART (specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and time specific) actions steps to be to address what has been learned and discussed thus far.
